

Numbers 3 * Mixed Integer Word Problems 3A

1. From a position on a thermometer, a 45° movement upward is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

2. A position on earth which is two hundred feet below sea level is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

3. A position on earth which is five hundred feet below sea level is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

4. Any position on the number line, a move is 14 units to the right is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

5. A loss of $5,000 on a major stock market investment is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

6. A gain of $3,500 on a major stock market investment is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

7. From a position on a thermometer, a 27° movement downward is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____

8. Any position on the number line, a move is 17 units to the left is represented as positive or negative?

Complete a statement for the above: _____